

Position: Junior Environmental Scientist

North Rock is currently looking for a Junior Environmental Scientist to join our highly skilled team of field staff. This is a full time (40 hours/week) position. We are seeking a dynamic, analytical, self motivator who demonstrates sound research skills and has excellent oral and written ability.

~In addition to your salary, you will receive a comprehensive benefits package~

Phase 1 ESA Job Duties:

- Compiling historical documentation
- Conducting building/property inspections
- Preparing of comprehensive Phase 1 ESA Reports

Phase 2 ESA Job Duties:

- Fieldwork supervision of Boreholes/ Monitoring Wells
- Soil Logging. Sampling/ Groundwater Monitoring, Sample Screening
- Preparation of Sampling and Analysis Plans and Phase 2 ESA Report
- Complete Shallow and Deep Foundation Designs

This is a general description of roles and responsibilities. Other duties or tasks may be assigned as required.

Minimum Qualifications:

- A University Degree in: General or Applied Science, Environmental Science, Environmental Studies, Geography, Physical Geography, or Geology.
- Must Possess a valid Ontario "G" drivers License and have access to a vehicle.
- Must be eligible to work in Canada.

Asset Qualifications:

- Able to work outdoors in adverse weather conditions.
- Willing to travel with some out-of-town work.
- Solid time management and organizational skills are a necessity.

Application instructions:

Please send resume to jgaratti@nrock.ca by February 28, 2021.

Include a cover letter addressed Att. Jason Garatti (that clearly states your first available start date) and resume. Only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

Thank you for your interest in North Rock Environmental.

Job Type:

Full Time, Permanent

Schedule:

- 8-hour shift
- Monday to Friday
- Occasional out of town travel and weekends